"SQUARE TIMBER."

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF
HON. AMOS C. NOYES,
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR STATE TREASURER.

Col. A. C. Noyes was born in Crafton county, New Hampshire, November 17th, 1818, where his ancestors, who were of Scotch-Irish descent, resided and were among the pioneers in the settlement of this State. His father was a farmer and gained among his fellow citizens, largely made up of the same element (Scotch, Irish and English), a reputation for sterling integrity and activity in all measures or improvements that tended to promote the interest and success of those engaged in cultivating the soil.

FARMER, SCHOOL TEACHER AND LUMBERMAN.

Col. Noyes spent his youth in active work on his father's farm, attending the village school during the winter months, until he was competent to assume the position that in the good old days of the Republic was the highest ambition of the boys of the country and village, that of teacher of the district school. In this manner of living he attained man's estate, when, in partnership with his father, he engaged in lumbering on the Connecticut river. The success of this enterprise led him to seek in his early ambition, a wider field of operation.

EMIGRATES TO PENNSYLVANIA.

The pineries of the west branch of the Susquehanna, at that time an almost pathless wilderness offered an inviting field to one constituted like him, and thither, in 1847, he made his way, locating at the point now known as Emporium, Cameron county, where he remained two years, when he removed to Westport, Clinton county, at the mouth of Kettle Creek, on the same branch of the river, where he has resided ever since, actively engaged in lumbering, farming and merchandizing.

THE LUMBERMEN'S DIFFICULTIES.

In these days of railroad facilities, it is hard for any to realize the amount of work and privation connected with the industries in which Col. Noyes engaged. All the supplies for logging camps and square timber crews were transported in canoes during the summer, or sleds in winter, from Lock Haven and Williamsport; but to a man determined to let no natural obstacle prevent business success, these difficulties only brought forth corresponding energy and determination on his part. Frequently has the writer of this sketch seen the Colonel with his heavy canoe load of flour, meat and other necessary supplies, polling his way through the channels of the river from Lock Haven to Williamsport.

A MAN WHO WAS NOT AFRAID TO WORK.

He has always been a large operator, employing a large number of men, with whom he was always in sympathy, ready to doff his coat and take a hand in "logging" with the boys, and in the early spring floods, none so welcome on the river from Westport to Columbia as Col. Noyes, piloting his numerous square timber rafts from home to market, always the same, whether in the woods, on the river, or in the timber mart—generous, frank, open hearted, honest and true to his friends, relieving many of his less fortunate competitors and neighbors at Columbia from loss by his money and advice.

AN HONORABLE RECORD.

He has never been a politician, but has always not only professed but practiced Democratic principles, pure and unadulterated, and to this day his character is without spot or blemish. With a record for everything that is manly, honest and ingenuous, and the host of friends that a man of his character becomes surrounded with, it is no cause for wonder that he was repeatedly nominated and elected to the Legislature.

POPULARITY BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

In 1861, Sheriff Chatham, the Republican nominee, defeated Col. Jarret, a very popular Democrat in his district, by four hundred majority. In 1862 Col. Noyes, as the Democratic candidate, defeated Mr. Chatham in the same district, by twelve hundred majority, making a change in that district in favor of the Democracy of sixteen hundred. This was emphatically a triumph, not only for the Democracy, but also for the hard-handed lumbermen of the district. His term in the Legislature gave such entire satisfaction to his constituents, being filled with honest fidelity, that he was triumphantly re-elected in 1863. In 1868 he was a Presidential elector on the Democratic ticket.

TWICE AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

In 1870 the Legislative district was changed to embrace Clinton, Cameron and McKean, and again Col. Noyes was put in nomination. Cameron was a Republican county and gave Scofield, the Republican for Congress forty-five majority; at the same election it gave Col. Noyes, the Democratic candidate for Assembly, three hundred and forty-eight majority, and he was once mere triumphantly elected.

In 1871 the district was again changed to comprise Clinton, Lycoming and Sullivan, forming a double district, sending two members. Col. Noyes was again nominated and elected. It was during this session he offered the bill to reduce boomage on logs at Williamsport from $1.25 per thousand feet to 90 cents. This bill excited much attention at the time throughout the entire Commonwealth, on account of the outrageous manner of its defeat in a midnight session.

THIS BOOM MONOPOLY

was at that time especially obnoxious to all parties engaged directly or indirectly in the manufacture and sale of lumber on the West Branch of the Susquehanna and its tributaries, and but few persons had knowledge of the extent of the cost and extra labor inflicted on the lumbermen and consequent additional cost to the consumer made by the decrees of a soulless corporation under the power of an act of Assembly. No wonder that lumbermen are down on corporations. Col. Noyes did all that was in the power of one man to do to have the cost of boomage reduced to an equitable price, but the corporation had in their hands a more potent lever, and the bill was killed in the House in a "midnight decree."

THE PEOPLE APPROVE HIS COURSE.

In 1872 he declined being a candidate, pleading the party custom of the consecutive two-term rule, but his constituency claimed that although he had served a portion of the district two years, yet he had served but one year in the district as now composed, and he was again re-elected—a remarkable testimony of his character for integrity in the discharge of the duties of a Legislator in a district where candidates of known ability, anxious to serve the people in that capacity are able to be found in most any township.

NAMED FOR GOVERNOR.

In 1875 Col. Noyes was prominently named for Governor before the Democratic Convention that met at Erie. Without reflection upon the candidates nominated by that Convention, it is but just to say that the proceedings of that body were a disgrace to the party, as it became merely an arena for a gladiatorial combat between rival factions for the ascendency, sacrificing such men as Col. Noyes, Judge Ross and Hon. Orange Noble in the selfish struggle for supremacy.

NOMINATED FOR STATE TREASURER.

Col. Noyes was nominated by the late Harrisburg Convention as the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer. As is the inevitable case, where two strong candidates are opposed for the same position, bitter animosities arise, and charges are made that in themselves bear evidence of untruthfulness. That such should be the case is at least unfortunate for those who adopt this system of warfare, but in most instances it is the sure sequence of a heated canvass. The struggle over, as it should be, animosities are forgotten, the work of the convention approved, and all the different elements are working heartily to secure the election of the entire ticket.

NOT A POLITICIAN.

Col Noyes has never been a politician in the general acceptance of the term, but has always been ready to obey the call of his party and numerous personal friends. Five times elected to the Legislature, at periods when the working people of his district felt the need of just such a representative, his majority each time running largely ahead of the party ticket, is sufficient proof of the estimation of his honest integrity, vigor and persistency in the cause of the people in a district where he is known.

NOT A CORPORATION MAN.

It has been charged, and perhaps with some effect, where the facts are unknown, that Col. Noyes is the friend and advocate of corporations, especially railroads. This is undoubtedly true in one respect, but not in the sense his adversaries would endeavor to make it appear. Whilst with every other business man he wishes for the financial success of the great arteries of commerce that connect the Atlantic with Pacific, he is for holding them strictly to the purpose for which the people granted them their chartered privileges, and would, with his solid, calm judgment at all times be found on the side of right, when great corporations seek to become masters instead of servants. The business man who is interested in his own success in life and the prosperity and development of the resources of the nation who would act differently, or as the enemy of the railroad system, must be a lunatic, and unsafe to habdle a public trust.

HELPS TO BUILD THE P. & E. ROAD.

The writer of this is familiar with the history of all his railroad connections. In 1857, when the Phil. & Erie railroad was struggling under heavy financial difficulties which threatened to defeat or at least defer its completion, Col. Noyes, in the interest of his lumber and mercantile operations, which were in a large measure dependent for success on the completion of this road, applied the weight of his energy, character and money to ensure the completion of that work. Untiring in his efforts and surmounting obstacles of every nature, the road from Lock Haven to Driftwood is to-day a monument of his exertions and at that time sacrifice of his personal estate.

At the request of an old friend, living in a distant State, he accepted a few shares of stock in the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, for the purpose of making him eligible as a director of that road. This trust was accepted ed to serve a friend of his early manhood, whose confidence in his judgment and integrity imposed the trust upon him. This is the only railroad stock of which he is the owner.

IN SYMPATHY WITH WORKINGMEN.

In conclusion, I would say to those who are now engaged in working out a plan to secure for the workingmen who depend upon their daily toil for the necessary comforts and luxuries of life for themselves and families, that Col. Noyes is in full sympathy with them; not only that, but he is a living model to the young men of the country of what perseverance, honest integrity and daily toil can accomplish for any who, like him, determine to succeed. Starting in active life at twenty-one years of age, he commenced working in a saw mill in his native State at thirteen dollars per month, his salary increasing with each year's services. At the end of three years he was taken into partnership, and for three years after was the foreman not only of the work but foremost in having it done. This position, attained no doubt by his industry and capability, would have satisfied the ambition of most young men. Not so with Col. Noyes. The pineries of Pennsylvania offered a more inviting field for his ambition, and although many difficulties and privations had to be encountered, he was equal to them all, and now, in his 59th year, he can sit down under his own vine and fig tree, the work of his hands, and enjoy with his family and friends the fruits of his industry.

THE WORKINGMEN'S CANDIDATE.

Workingmen of Pennsylvania! you have a candidate for Treasurer on the Democratic ticket who is one of yourselves, familiar with all the toil, disappointments and trials that fall to the lot of those born to earn their living and place among the men of the nation by the sweat of their brows—a whole-souled, big-hearted gentleman; a fine type of American manhood, who is all and more than he assumes—all that honest men want in a public officer, and whose life and energies thus far have been spent in doing good to others as well as to himself.

THEN BE TRUE TO YOURSELVES.

be true to your order, and true to your State; let not demagogues interested only in their own advancement lead you from the path of duty, and you will in the election of Col. Amos C. Noyes, of Clinton, secure to the old Commonwealth a Treasurer who will be firm in the honest discharge of the duties of his office and add a new lustre to the record of the sons of toil.

Influence of the Piano on Musical Composition.

I believe there has been no more pernicious influence upon music than the transformation which the piano-forte has undergone since Beethoven's time, and its diffusion over all the world. I do not refer to the cruelties which it is daily the means of inflicting upon inoffensive families and true lovers of music, but to the effect that it has had upon composition and upon performance. The former it has helped to be at once flashy, dull, intricate and shallow; the latter it has led to be astonishing. Brilliancy, a crowd of notes, sonority, all, without beauty of form or emotional suggestiveness—this is the music which the modern grand piano-forte has brought upon us. Not only piano-forte music, but in a measure all music, has become a brilliant fantasia by Signor Rumblestominski. We do not sit in a passive silence to listen to it; we talk, or are tempted to talk against it; and the praise we give it is not a look of serene joy, with that tinge of sadness which Shakespeare had in mind when he made Jessica say, "I'm never merry when I hear sweet music," but a clapping of the hands and congratulation upon a brilliant triumph. And then we turn aside and go on with our society gabble. Orchestral leaders and performers are not content unless they have a score to "interpret." They must have a big brilliant noise. The pitch has been raised until singers shriek, in order that the tone of the instrument may be brilliant. Our ears must be shot through and through with piercing shafts of sound. The time is quickened until allegro has become presto, and presto a maddened indistinguishable rush. Even Theodore Thomas loses some of the majesty of the final movement of the "Fifth Symphony" by too quick a movement; and in the Trio of the Scherzo he drives the basses into a headlong scramble up and down the scale. When the clear succession of notes becomes indistinguishable, musical form, and with it musical beauty is lost, and the performance becomes a mere victory over musical difficulties. And this quickening of time is exactly what should not have taken place. Our orchestras have increased in size and in volume of sound since the days of Mozart and Beethoven. As larger bodies, therefore, their movement should be a little slower to produce the effect which the great composers had in mind. But in our rage for brilliancy we have hastened the movement; as if we should make an elephant gallop like a horse. Moreover we have fallen into the fatal error of making the finish, if not the difficulty of execution, superior to the presentation of beauty in form and in expression.—Richard Grant White in the Galaxy for June.

The Discovery of Fire.

Fire, the common source of heat, of light, and of life, and the active principle of a multitude of industries, and of metallurgical industry in particular, is unquestionably one of the greatest conquests achieved by man over nature.

The discovery of fire was more than a benefit; it was, in fact, a giant stride on the road to civilization. With fire arose sociability, the family, the sacred joys of the domestic hearth, all industries, all arts together with the wonders they have produced, and still produce from day to day. Hence we can readily understand how it is that fire has ever been and still is, among many nations, the object of a special worship (priests of Baal, Ghebers, Hindoos, Brahmins, Roman vestals, priestesses of the sun in Peru, etc.;) and that it often figured in the religious or funeral rites of nations most remote from one another, both in time and space, as the Chaldees, Hebrews, Greeks, Romans, Peruvians, Mexicans, etc. But how and when was this great discovery made, in the absence of which we can hardly conceive of the possibility of human arts or even of human existence? Did man, as we are told in the myths of India and Greece, steal fire from heaven? or did he as other legends affirm, take advantage of spontaneous forest-fires, arising from the violent rubbing together of dry branches under the action of the wind, or finally, was man so ingenious, from the beginning, as to devise one of those simple and practical contrivances by means of which certain savage and half-civilized tribes in our own time obtain the fire they need for their daily uses?

Novel Use for Carrier Pigeons.

The experiment which was tried last winter of employing carrier pigeons to bring early intelligence every morning from the fishing ground, off the Scotch coast, of the results of the night's labor, is again being restored to this season. One of the birds is taken out in every boat in the afternoon, and after the nets have been hauled on the following morning, the pigeon is dispatched with a small piece of parchment tied round its neck, containing information as to the extent of the catch, the position of the boat, the direction of the wind, and the prospects of the return journey. If there is not wind to take the boat back, or if it is blowing in an unfavorable direction, a request is made for a tug, and from the particulars given as to the bearings of the craft, she can be picked up easily by the steamer. Most of the pigeons, when let off from the boats, circle three times round overhead, and then sweep away toward the land with great rapidy, generally flying at the rate of about a mile per minute.

DEBT.—"Debt!—there is no worse demoralization of character. The sad records of defaulting, embezzling, and dishonest failures which we meet with so constantly in the daily press are often, indeed most frequently, the result of the demoralization of debt, and consequent desperate efforts of extrication. The financial props have given away. The little debt, which at first was as small as a grain of mustard seed, like the rolling snow-ball, has gathered weight and multiplied itself a thousand fold. And still it grows, and like the fabulous hydra which Hercules was sent to kill, you no sooner strike off one head than two shoot up in its place. The struggle is severe, but in the end decisive; either confession is made of a hopeless bankruptcy, which might and should have been avoided, or integrity is sacrificed to the temptation of the moment. Debt ruins as many households and destroys as many fine characters as rum.—Christian at Work.

How Kid Gloves are Made.

Gloves have been in use from very early times, being mentioned by such ancient writers as Homer and Xenophon. During the middle ages they were worn by certain officials as a mark of dignity. But as civilization advanced they gradually became common to all classes of the community. In the early part of this century there was no positive regularity in the cut and shape of kid gloves, all being left to the judgment of the cutter, who had no systematic pattern. In 1834 Xavier Jouvin invented a new method of cutting the kid, doing it with geometrical precision. His system is extremely elaborate, having thirty-two sizes, and cutting ten widths to each size, in all making 32 different numbers. Since then other manufacturers have numerous improvements in shape, finish and stitching, and now the best makes have almost reached perfection, and merit the growing demand, which is such that the price of skins has advanced fifty per cent in the last fifteen years.

The term "kid," however, is a mere technicality, as the quantity consumed annually of leather bearing this name is largely in excess of what could be supplied from the the skins of the young goats that are annually slaughtered, lamb and other thin skins being extensively used. The value of the kid gloves manufactured in France is estimated at $10,000,000, and there are large quantities made in Italy, Germany and England, and a comparatively small amount in this country at Gloversville and New York city.

As the sewing of a single pair of ladies' kid gloves requires five thousand stitches, for which the continental manufacturers pay about ten cents, it can readily be seen that this industry cannot be carried on extensively in this country. The seams are sewed with perfect regularity by placing the edges to be united in the jaws of a vice, which terminate in fine brass teeth like those of a comb, but only one-twelfth of an inch long, the stitches being held by a knot to prevent ripping, which used to be a frequent source of trouble. It is necessary that the animal should be killed young, because as soon as it begins to feed on herbage its skin is impaired for this purpose. Eggs are very extensively used in preparing skins, it being estimated that 60,000,000 are annually used in England and France alone. In coloring the kids dye is applied to the outer skin with a brush by hand; if the skins were immersed the inner portion would also receive the dye and stain the hand.

France excels all in the variety and richness of her colors, which is attributed to her atmosphere and water—producing 200 different shades. Ladies' sizes run from 5½ to 8; gents' from 7½ to 11; misses' from 4 to 6½. Gents' are longer in the fingers and higher in the w

The above datee should be carefully remembered and acted on by all voters.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.

As the time for our general election is near at hand, it becomes our duty to the Democratic party and to our candidates to address you a few words of encouragement and advice. It needs but an active and resolute effort to succeed. Every State around us encourages us to win. The Democracy of Columbia county have never wavered in their devotion, and we now call upon them for renewed exertion.

It is no time to pause, as the time is short. The Committeemen and Vigilance Committees should meet at once, lay out their work, and see that every Democratic vote is polled. Let no man wait or depend upon another. One grand effort and Pennsylvania will be once more in the hands of Democrats, who do not belong to Rings, and our State Treasury will be in honest hands, and our State accounts will be honestly audited, so that even our Republican friends will rejoice.

DAVID LOWENBERG,
Chairman.

SPEAKER RANDALL.

The success of Mr. Randall in being nominated by three fourths of the Democratic votes in Congress, notwithstanding the desperate opposition made to him, is not only a just tribute to him, but is a matter of pride to every Pennsylvanian. As a parliamentarian he has no equal in the House. In addition to that, he is cool, cautious, and conservative. His known advocacy of economy and retrenchment, as well as his hostility to corrupt rings, subsides and monopolies justify the confidence the people have placed in him. The new House has taken a good start, and the result cannot help being beneficial to the country and to the party.

While our Judiciary is necessarily a non-political body justice and reason demand that the Supreme Bench should be filled as equally as possible by men of both political parties. In fact such was the intention of the framers of our present Constitution. Out of the seven judges in the Supreme Court, the Democrats, with one half of the voting population of the State have but one. In order to aid in balancing the representation, men of both parties should do all in their power to elect such an able and upright man as Judge Trunkey.

TRUE WORDS.

As a rule our Republican cotemporaries are trying to belittle or explain away their disastrous defeat in Ohio. But it is whistling against the wind. It is a terrible defeat in a Republican stronghold,—in Hayes' own state, and on clearly defined issues, and that, too, against the power and influence of the administration. But the Mauch Chunk Gazette, a strong Republican paper, is not disposed to gloss things over, and comes out squarely and says:

"The Administration has been beaten some 30,000 votes in Ohio, and the Democrats elect a Legislature which will choose Geo. H. Pendleton, or some other obnoxious man, United States Senator. The State is a close one and it ought to have been close on Tuesday, but it was not, and the reason is perfectly plain. The Republican party does not approve of the policy of the administration and will not support it. That is a full explanation of the revolution in politics in Ohio. It is "rough, mighty rough," that within seven months of the inauguration of a Republican President his own State should so utterly and unanimously repudiate him. The platform endorsed Mr. Hayes fairly and squarely which makes the defeat most humiliating. But that is not the worst of it. This matter will not stop at the Ohio election. The Republican party all over the Union is dispirited. There is no life it any where, and we do not wonder. The President has literally destroyed the party in the Southern States, and he has nearly ruined it in the North, by his ridiculous civil service order, and his servile attitude towards the traitors of the South. There is but one remedy. The great Republican party is strong in its blood-defended faith. The Ohio election proves that its members preferred defeat to stultification. The party must arise above presidents and above cabinets and assert itself. The men of the Union will then spring to the defense of the principles which are necessary to the prolongation of the Republic, and our flag will float victoriously as of yore. The administration and the party are two distinct and separate things, and when the President ventures out of the domain of Republicanism he cannot take the weakest member of the party with him."—Mauch Chunk Coal Gazette.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL APPROPRIATIONS.

Last week we published in full the distribution made of the appropriation by the Legislature of $175,000 for the years 1876 and 1877. Of this sum $15,000 is alloted to our School on condition that we raise an additional amount of $3.000! This was not the intention of the Legislature, nor is such action justified by the circumstances. The people of this County not only donated the present grounds and their splendid Literary Institute Building, but erected the Normal School Building proper at their own expense. When adopted by the State, it became a State Institution, and as such should be fostered and protected as much as a Penitentiary or an Insane Asylum. The money that the State has advanced us, it seems is considered merely as a loan for which like like any other creditor it takes a mortgage. The $30,000 appropriation, was not a mere gift; it was a sum loaned to repair in part a loss by fire,, and as it did not cover the expenses of rebuilding it shouldnot be considered in the distribution of other funds. The $175,000 should have been distributed to needy and struggling schools, and not to those which are not only self-sustaining, but earning dividends. To couple the loan of $15,000 with the condition that we should raise $3,000 additional, is therefore unfair and unjust. As well might you say to a man who had nothing, that if he would give you three acres of land you would give him fifteen.

Although heavily embarrassed with debt, we hope our people, may be able to comply with these hard conditions, and trust hereafter that our legislators will make direct appropriations to the schools which need it, and not trust the fund to those who have personal or political ends to serve.

M'Clelland's Call to Victory.

THE DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA ASKED TO IMITATE OHIO.

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania:

The Republican organization is defeated in its stronghold by an overwhelming majority. Ohio, the home of its President, has voted for the Democracy. The importance of this victory cannot be overstated, for in its wake will come the utter overthrow of Radicalism here.

Disintegration and defeat have promptly followed the crime that denied to the people their chosen President, and the evidences that surround you here are full proof that Pennsylvania is prepared to render a similar verdict.

The prestige of the opposition is gone. Their unity upon principle is lost; their leaders quarrel; their active men are disgusted with official management, and the people distrust them everywhere.

The utter loss of their political power will now follow with rapid strides the initiative thus taken by Ohio.

The country owes a debt of lasting gratitude to the independent patriotic people who regardless of party, have joined the Democracy to achieve this decisive victory, and the people of Pennsylvania will affirm the verdict of Ohio by tens of thousands in November.

On behalf of the committee,
WM. MCLELLAND,
Chairman.

PHILADELPHIA, October 9.

FORNEY'S PRESS SOLD.

No one can regret this. We admit Forneys' energy and ability, but unfortunately it was seldom directed to a good object. As a politician he was weak and vacillating. As a man he was treacherous, and not only corrupt himself, but defended it in others. No job was too huge for him to aid, if it paid. As an editor he published statements that he knew to be untrue, and refused to correct them afterwards.

The purchaser is Capt. W. W. Nevin, of whom we hope "better things." The price of the paper is $150,000, and the book accounts $30,000.

SCHELL AND NOYES.

Our candidates for Auditor General and State Treasurer made our Fair a brief visit on Thursday of last week. Despite the rain they met hundreds of our citizens, who were glad to see and shake hands with the men who will sweep Pennsylvania in November. It was too stormy to hold an out door meeting, and the Opera House was engaged for the evening so that the pleasure of hearing their views on the questions of the day was denied us. But, as they are honest and intelligent men their acts when installed in office will speak louder than mere words.

A DIGEST OF BOUNTY LAWS.

We are constantly receiving letters and having inquiries made on this subject, and for the benefit of all concerned we give the following digest of existing Bounty Laws. Those interested should preserve it.

$100 bounty is paid to all soldiers, honorably discharged, who enlisted between May 3 and July 22, 1861, for three years, and who were mustered in before August 6, 1861. No matter how long or short a time they served, they are entitled to the $100.

$200 bounty will be paid to soldiers (or heirs) who enlisted before September, 1863, for three years, and who served the full time, or were mustered out or discharged by reason of wounds, rupture, or any kind of mechanical injury (not disease.)

$100 bounty is paid to the wife, children, father or mother of a soldier who enlisted before September, 1863, for three years, and contracted disease in line of duty, was discharged for disease, and died of the disease before July 28, 1866.

$300 bounty is paid to all recruits (three years' men) in old regiments between September 23, 1863, and April 1, 1864.

$400 bounty is paid to all veterans (or heirs) who were mustered out or discharged for wounds, rupture, or injury (not disease.)

All men who enlisted under General Order No. 191, if recruits, were entitled to $302: such soldiers as had rendered nine months' previous service in the army or navy, $402.

Some men were entitled to $402 and received $302, for the want of being mustered as veterans, and such are now entitled to another $100.

All soldiers enlisting for the large bounty, who were discharged short of their full term of service, for any kind of wound or injury —even for hernia, rupture, or accidental injuries—or who were discharged on Telegraphic Order of May 4th, 1865, from the Surgeon General's Office, or Circular from the War Department of May 3d, 1865, and failed to get all the installments of bounty, or the entire balance of the $302, or the $402, can now recover the balance of the bounty; or, if the soldier has died since leaving the service, the heirs, in the order named, can now draw the arrears of the large bounty.

And all soldiers who served at any time in the early part of the war nine months or more, and were honorably discharged, and then re-enlisted between September, 1863, and April, 1864, are entitled to the $402 bounty. If such soldier has never received it, he can have his record so changed to show him a veteran, and yet receive the $402 bounty. No bounty is paid to soldiers who served less than two years, and were discharged by reason of disability (disease or sickness;) but if a soldier enlisted for three years, and was discharged before the expiration of term of service, for wounds, rupture, or accidental injuries, he is entitled to receive full bounty for which he enlisted, $200, $302 or $402, owing to the date of his enlistment.

The bounty act of July 28th, 1866, having been extended, there are many who are yet entitled to bounty.

"STATE SECRETS."

Throughout its whole existence, the constant tendency of Republican administrations has been to ape despotic governments, and override Constitutional barriers. It was Seward's boast that "the tinkle of his little bell" could consign an American citizen to a dungeon without a trial by judge or jury. It was Republican presidents who ruled sovereign states with bayonets, and made military rule superior to the civil. But it has been reserved to these latter days to broach the doctrine that public officials, servants of the people,—are superior to the law, and not amenable to judicial process. In the course of the investigation of the Pittsburg riots by a Grand Jury, the evidence of Gov. Hartranft, Gen. Latta, and some other officials was deemed important, but Attorney General Lear has advised them to disobey the subpœna on the ground that they are not obliged to divulge "State secrets." We were under the impression that in a government like ours, "of the people, by the people, and for the people," no such things as "State secrets" existed, especially where it interfered with the administration of justice. To admit such a doctrine is to concede a power greater than that exercised by the Doges of Venice or the officers of the inquisition.

If a murder has been committed has not a jury the right to inquire as to who committed it, by what authority and under what circumstances? If ordered by a Governor or a subordinate can they screen themselves under the plea of "State secrets?" If arson or riot have prevailed, is it not the duty of a grand jury to get all the evidence they can to ascertain the perpetrators of the crime? If "State secrets" may close the mouths of witnesses, then Presidents, Cabinet officers, Governors and all classes of officials may murder, rob, and commit all grades of crime with impunity. The county officers may refuse to testify because they might divulge "County secrets," and township officers because they might let light in upon "Township secrets," and so on to the end of the chapter. Gov. Hartranft and his satellites may refuse to testify because they might criminate themselves, and this is the only tenable ground they have for declining, and is probably the true one.

THE STRIKE ENDED.

MINERS ALL GOING TO WORK.

No More Trouble Expected in the Wyoming Region.

The strike which has held out so long in Scranton and other parts of Luzerne county is drawing to a close.

A delegate meeting of non-union workmen representing a large and respectable portion of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western miners, was held in Hyde Park last Monday and although the deliberations were conducted secretly it is understood that an emphatic expression in favor of immediate resumption was made, and a series of resolutions adopted setting forth to the workingmen at large the fallacy of prolonging a struggle that promises no success.

The Union executive committee, apprehensive of a break in the ranks, also held a meeting with a view to securing harmony of action, and it is understood decided in favor of calling a mass meeting of miners in the morning and recommending them to resume work at once. It is the aim of the leaguers to prevent a collision of the union and non-union men, and the latter, who have already decided to end the strike, will not attend. It is thought there will be a unanimous vote in favor of work, and that the mines, which have been idle nearly three months, will resume activity at once. The miners of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company, at Carbondale, are also anxious for work and will doubtless resume simultaneously with the Scranton men.

Several collieries operated by small companies began work on Monday without disturbance or much demonstration. The men at Briggs' shaft, of the Lackawanna Iron and Coal Company, gave a vote of 68 to 42 favorable to work. Fifty miners went in at the Jermyn colliery and Mr. John R. Davis resumed at the Roaring Brook mine with a full force of workmen. Hosie & Co. started the Fairlawn colliery on Wednesday and many others are preparing to begin.

The military companies are coming in from the surrounding towns, and there are at present in Scranton sufficient soldiers to quell the most violent outbreak.

It has been a long and hard struggle, and now that it is over everybody in the region has cause to rejoice.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Congress met on Monday at noon. In the Senate the credentials of Stanley Matthews as Senator from Ohio, J. Donald Cameron as Senator from Pennsylvania, and D. H. Armstrong as Senator from Missouri, were presented, and they were sworn in.

In the House, the roll was called by the Clerk, who announced that 287 members had answered to their names. On motion of Mr. Wood, it was resolved to proceed to the election of a Speaker. Samuel J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, was then chosen Speaker, by a vote of 149 to 132 for James A. Garfield, of Ohio. Mr. Randall took the chair, and the members were then sworn in, except Messrs. Cain and Rainey, of South Carolina, Darrall, Elam and Robertson, of Louisiana, and Pacheco, of California, to whom objection was made, and whose cases were postponed until Tuesday. The organization of the House was completed by the election of the nominees of the Democratic caucus for Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, Doorkeeper, Postmaster and Chaplain, and committees were appointed to wait upon the Senate and the President. After the drawing of seats, as usual on the first day of a session, the House adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

In the United States Senate yesterday, the Clerk of the House appeared and announced the organization of the latter body. On motion of Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont, the committees of the last session were revived and continued until further order. Bills were introduced by Mr. Ingalls, of Kansas, to grant arrears of pensions; by Mr. Beck, of Kentucky, to remove all disabilities, and to abolish the ironclad oath; by Mr. Hamlin, of Maine, to establish the Territory of Huron; and by Mr. Thurman, of Ohio, to amend the Pacific Railroad acts so as to provide a sinking fund for the liquidation of the indebtedness of those railroads to the Government.

In the House, Messrs. Rainey and Cain, of South Carolina, and Darrall, of Louisiana, objected to on Monday, were, after considerable discussion, sworn in. The case of Mr. Elam, of Louisiana, was discussed. The President's message was read, and referred to the Committee of the Whole. The rules of the last House were adopted, and the House adjourned.

THURSDAY.

Mr. Thurman yesterday presented the credentials of Henry M. Spofford, elected United States Senator from March 4, 1877, and asked that they be read and Mr. Spofford now be sworn in. The credentials having been read by the clerk, Mr. Mitchell moved as a substitute for Mr. Thurman's motion, that the credentials be referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky introduced a bill to repeal the bankrupt law and all acts amendatory thereof. It was ordered that the bill lie on the table to be taken up hereafter.

The following were among the bills introduced and referred to-day:

By Conkling in favor of remonitization of silver.

By Withers: Amending laws granting pensions to soldiers of 1812 and other widows.

By Edmunds: To prevent abuse in sale of postage stamps.

Read our new advertisements this week.

Berwick has organized a fire company and purchased an engine and hose carriage.

I John & Son, of Catawissa, have appointed assignees for the benefit of creditors.

The first story of the new jail is up. The work is rapidly progressing.

On Thursday Kramer was taken to the Eastern Penitentiary by the Sheriff.

Evening service at the Episcopal Church begins at seven o'clock instead of half past seven.

Cut out Lutz & Sloan's advertisement and put it in your pocket when you start out to buy dry goods.

Quarterly meeting services will be held at the M. E. Church on next Sunday. The services will be conducted by Rev. F. Gearhart.

In order to complete our files we would like to have the following copies of the COLUMBIAN; No's 1 and 2, 1871, and April 16th 1875.

The Russians have at last gained a decisive victory in Asia Minor, near Kars, almost completely destroying Mukhtar Pasha's army.

Hon. H. L. Dieffenbach was in town during the early part of this week. He is looking well.

The Episcopal Church Sociable will meet next Tuesday evening at the residence of E. R. Drinker.

The She ill in accordance with his advertisement has destroyed all contrivances for catching fish, that he could find in his bailiwich.

The main office of the Danville Hazleton & Wilkesbarre Railroad Co., has been located at the rooms of Freeze & Eyerly.

Oscar P. Ent of Lightstreet has been quite ill for the past week. We hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

There will be a Gospel Temperance meeting the Friday evening at 7 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church.

The French elections are over, and the Administration has met with an Ohio defeat, the opposition having 134 majority in the Chambers.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGS.—Mass Temperance meetings will be held in the Presbyterian church this Friday evening, and at the foot of East Street on Sunday afternoon at 3½ o'clock p. m.

Beckley, we presume, has heard of the Ohio election by this. At any rate, it is noticeable that it takes about twice as long as formerly to change the mails.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A good "Morning Glory" stove, arranged to heat up stairs room.
C. B. Brockway.

Oct, 19 2w.

The Orphans' Court Sale advertised by H.W. Vanderslice for September 1st was deferred to Thursday, November 1st, at 2 o'clock p. m., when a sale will certainly come off at the farm.

The statement of the Bloomsburg Gas Company for the last fiscal year has been audited and found correct. It is probable that a dividend of two per cent will be declared on the 1st of November.

As an apple raiser, Aaron Smith, of Hemlock, is far ahead of all competitors. He had several splendid specimens on exhibition at the late Fair. One apple which he presented us measured fourteen inches in circumference.

During the Fair, Mr. Schell, Democratic candidate for Auditor General, and Mr. Noyes, candidate for State Treasurer, visited the town. Socially they made a good impression and they are undoubtedly very worthy men.—Republican.

A writ of error has been taken out in the case of Harman A. Kreamer. The sheriff was obliged to postpone the removal of the prisoner to the Penitentiary on account of his (Kreamer's) illness.

WANTED ON SUBSCRIPTION.—Wheat flour, Buckwheat flour, potatoes, honey, oats, corn, butter eggs, and poultry will be taken at this office on subscription until further notice, at market prices. This is a fine opportunity to pay up your back subscription in produce without having first to get cash for it.

We very much fear that our next year's wheat crop will again prove a failure. The late fine weather has developed the growth of what has been sowed, and many fields are already infested with the Hessian fly. In fact some farmers are replacing the fields sowed by substituting rye.

Mr A. B Swisher of Eliza Ill., writes us that Mr. Thomas Willits and wife former residents of Bloomsburg paid him a visit and during their stay took a fishing excursion to Glancy Lake, and in a short time, with hook and line succeeded in catching 37 catfish, weighing 44 lbs. They desire to know whether that can be beat in Fishingcreek and we are compelled to answer in the negative.

GONE TO TEXAS.—On Saturday last our genial friend, A. E. Miller, the former popular clerk of the Exchange Hotel, bid a tearful adieu to his many male and female friends in this place, preparatory to his departure for Texas. He bears with him the entire good wishes of this community. Keep away from the Apaches, Miller, or they may lift that beautiful scalp of yours.

There was a great deal of drunkenness in town during the fair. It was not to be seen specially among old topers, but a great many boys, young men from the country, who had evidently got on their first spree, were to be seen on the streets, staggering along alone, or assisted by a stronger headed companion. Young men, let the dictates of your conscience, which filled you with shame and remorse the next day after your debauch, be your guide in the future, and keep you from the intoxicating bowl.

CHICKEN THIEVES ARRESTED.—It seems that on last Saturday night Ben. Hagenbuch and Jos. May of this place, in their quest for fine poultry struck the coop of Mrs. Daniel Snyder, and took ten of her largest and best fowls. On Sunday morning, after the loss was discovered, by tracing the feathers, two of the chickens were found stewing at May's house, and the remainder, dead but uncleaned in a bag in Hagenbuch's out house. The men waived a hearing and were lodged in jail. We are satisfied that others have been interested in this nefarious practice, and trust all the offenders will speedily be brought to trial, and receive full punishment.

May has been released on $200 bail.

Rebecca Carman, of Benton, has just returned from Philadelphia with a large assortment of Millinery and Notion Goods, to which she invites the attention of the public.

Oct. 5—3w*

The foundation walls of the new Jackson block in Berwick are completed. Mr. Jackson, we are informed, will push the building rapidly to completion.

The Bloomsburg Band, one of the finest in the State, we are glad to learn is being reorganized. It is composed of first-class material, and deserves success. We tender its members our thanks for a pleasant serenade on last Saturday evening.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Any members of the Democratic Standing or Vigilance Committees visiting Bloomsburg, are requested to call upon D. Lowenberg, Esq., for consultation.

Oct. 19 3w.

Those who receive circulars by mail this week will please understand that this is the last opportunity they will have to settle at the low rates. If our request is not complied with at once, we shall require payment in full at $2.50 a year. This applies to no one who has paid anything since October 1st, 1875.

Last week Thursday while a band from a neighboring town was playing in front of the Exchange Hotel, a two horse team, attached to a wagon containing a man and several women and children, became frightened at the noise, and it was with much trouble that the driver could regain control of them. The team came very near running into a carriage that stood in front of G. A. Clark's book store. All this was in plain sight of the band and yet while it appeared evident that there would be a runaway, the drum was beat and the horns tooted just as loud as ever. Of course that tune had to be finished if it killed somebody.

RUNAWAY.—On last Tuesday night as Geo. H. Brown, John Q. Barkley and C. B. Brockway were returning from a meeting of the Catawissa Masonic Lodge, they met a freight train of cars at the narrows above the Catawissa depot. Despite the efforts of the three men, the horse managed to get away and started on a run towards Bloomsburg. Mr. Brown was cut considerably about the face, and somewhat injured by the buggy wheels passing over his body. The horse was captured above Boon's by Mr. Paxton, and at the time was walking leisurely towards home. Strange to say he was but little injured by his contact with the rocks, and the buggy did not receive a scratch.

SHOT HIMSELF.—G. W. G Waddell, recently chief clerk in the office of Auditor General Temple, shot himself, at his home, in Waynesburg, Greene county, about noon yesterday. A dispatch received in this city during the afternoon stated that Waddell could not possibly survive the self inflicted injury. Waddell, it will be remembered, behaved very badly during the last few weeks of his residence here, and was arrested and locked up, while under the influence of liquor, for threatening to kill his wife. He was subsequently placed in Kirkbride's asylum, Philadelphia, by his friends, and was afterwards released upon a writ of habeas corpus.—Patriot.

Mr. Waddell was formerly the law partner of Auditor General Temple. He was a young man of ability, genial in his manner, and universally liked. But the allurements at Harrisburg overcame him, and like many other young men he has fallen a wreck by the wayside. Our deepest sympathies are with his wife and children.

The ommission of damages to B. F. Savage in list of road damages published two weeks ago was not intentional. It was in the copy furnished and was omitted by mistake by the compositor. The proof was read at the commissioner's office and was not revised by our proof reader, so that we did not discover the ommission. This correction would have appeared in last weeks issue, but we were too busy at the time the letter was received in regard to it, to look it up. The damage allowed Savage was $140.

ROAD DAMAGE EXPLANATION.—The reason for the omission of the road damage assessed to B. F. Savage in Jackson township has already been explained, and it will be seen that it was not intentionally done. And I will add that as soon as I learned the amount of damage allowed to Mr. B. F. Savage in a conversation with two of the viewers I stated to them that his damage was too much. I said the same thing to Mr. B. F. Savage. As to the road being opened, I was slightly in error, but it is being opened. The supervisor expected to open, on a certain day, the entire road, but did not succeed in getting through entirely. As no damage has been paid to any persons along said road, the County has for that suffered no injury.
SILAS W. MCHENRY.

BLOOMSBURG, Oct., 15th, 1877.

EDITORS OF THE COLUMBIAN.

GENTLEMEN:—In your last issue of the Columbian you announced that a public spirited citizen of this town offers to donate one hundred dollars for a public reading room, an offer that I trust will meet with the support of our citizens. I would suggest that a meeting be held inviting any of our citizens who are in favor of trying to start an institution for the diffusion of useful knowledge, "consisting of a Reading Room, Circulating Library, Occasional Lectures, Classes &c. I want it to be understood that an institution of this kind could be supported by a small subscription per annum (with the aid of a few honarary members) that might be a credit to our town. The subject is one of great importance to all persons but especially so to our young men. An institution of this description would supply a want that has long existed in our town, and it would be most beneficial to have a Reading Room well supplied with the leading Newspapers and Magazines where many an hour might be spent instead of loafing on street corners.

I was for many years connected with an institution of this kind, and can look back with pleasure on the many pleasant hours spent in a comfortable well supplied Reading Room. I trust this matter will not be allowed to drop, but that some gentlemen of our town will take it up and start a Reading Room, towards which I would be happy to subscribe.

Yours &c.
JOHN R. TOWNSEND.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

Last week Wednesday the Columbia county Fair opened. The day was pleasant in the morning, but in the afternoon it clouded over, and towards evening began to rain. Thursday opened with a bright prospect, and a large crowd gathered at the grounds in the afternoon, but about three o'clock it began to rain again, and continued nearly all the balance of the day. At two o'clock Prof. James Calder delivered a very interesting address from the judges, stand. The audience occupied the pavilion. On Friday the people began to pour in from all directions, and the grounds were thronged all day. Over 8000 tickets were sold altogether. The total receipts were over two thousand dollars.

THE EXHIBITS.

There was the usual display of fine fruit, vegetables, bees, fancy work, &c. Among the note worthy exhibits was that of consisting of drugs, medicines, surgical instruments, pyramids of vitrial, alum, &c. A large sign near by, and the lettering on the Grand Stand called attention to the display, which was well arranged. Next to them was display of silverware, watches, &c. A large clock with bracket and a fancy chair all elaborately carved, were made by Mr. Bernhard. In another field of art he showed himself equally an adept. Two oil paintings, one of "Shakespear and his friends" and the other "Romeo and Juliet" attracted much attention and favorable comment. They would do credit to a professional artist, while Mr. Bernhard is only an amateur.

J. SCHUYLER & SON

exhibited a case of hardware, cutlery, revolvers, &c., from their Popular Hardware store up town.

I. W. HARTMAN'S

display of foreign and domestic woolen goods and shawls was good. The samples at the fair were only a slight indication of the large variety constantly on hand at his store.

One of the finest exhibits on the grounds was that of consisting of phaetons, carriages, buggies, open and covered, spring wagons, &c., eight in all. No city establishment could have made a finer display of the kind. All the work done by these gentlemen is first class, and their samples at the fair were no better than all that comes from their shops.

ROLLINS & HOLMES

had a department filled with ranges, stoves, heaters, tinware &c. The argand stove sold by them, attracted much attention.

ISAIAH HAGENBUCH

also had a display of tinware, stoves, ranges &c.

In the sewing machine department agent for the White, and W. H. Yetter, agent for the Weed, had their head quarters.

Merceron and Dillon each had floral exhibits.

The leather display of

was largely and of excellent quality. Mr. Herring, now occupying the Snyder Tannery, cannot be excelled in the production of fine leather.

Heretofore there has always been a large display of musical instruments on exhibition. This year we did not see or hear a single organ or piano. Why none were entered we do not know.

In other departments there were fine horses and cattle, fat hogs, poultry of all kind, among these a fine display by Bion Hagenbuch of Bloomsburg. Space will not allow us to name all who put articles on exhibition which deserve special notice. The show of fancy articles and household goods was unusually fine.

Music was furnished during the fair by the Catawissa, Buckhorn and Bloomsburg Brass Bands. On Thursday the fire department had a parade, but it was interfered with by the rain.

Col. A. C. Noyes, and W. P. Schell, Democratic candidates for State Treasurer and Auditor General, visited the grounds Thursday afternoon.

Financially, we presume the fair was a success, but so far as interesting exhibits are concerned there is too much of the same thing year after year. There should be some new and attractive feature introduced every season. The only suggestion we have to offer at present is, that the fair be held earlier in the fall hereafter.

[COMMUNICATED.]

MESSRS EDITORS:—In last weeks issue of the Republican I noticed a communication from an anonymous person or persons, "X. Y. Z." "who have been over the ground, and know whereof they speak" in relation to the estimate I furnished you of the cost of constructing water works for the Borough of Bloomsburg. They dont know from what point to attack it, but undoubtedly as they are "kickers" they "squeal" because I criticised a survey which was made by Mr. Neyhard, and submitted to me to base my estimate upon.

"They say that the survey in the first place as laid had reference to the shortest practicable distance, secondly the most favorable grades, and thirdly the best alignment" which of course must be the shortest distance. And as I have a map and profile of that line showing the course and distances as well as the elevation of all the ground passed over, I trust I ought to be a judge of the adaptedness of the line as surveyed, for a line of water pipes and would now say that it is not only unsatisfactory but impracticable and would be denounced by any person who knows anything about the practical construction of water works for as I said before the elevation of the ground in several places comes within 14 feet of the elevation of the starting point or elevation of the dam. That being the case the hydraulic grade is totally destroyed, and the hydraulic grade being destroyed there could be no discharge, and there being no discharge of water into the Borough of Bloomsburg the line of pipes would be useless and this would be undoubtedly the case if they were laid upon the line as located by said survey.

And hence the line does not establish (as claimed by worthy X. Y. Z.) the shortest practicable distance, nor the most favorable grade, because the grades are impracticable, but by the contour of the ground as shown by said map a line could be located which would not be any longer or if so very little and at the same time have a good hydraulic grade. And I hope that such a line may soon be established and prove satisfactory to "X. Y. Z." that the supply is addequate, the source favorable and the works are a great success.

Yours respectfully,
S. W. DOUGLASS.
Civil and Mining Engineer.

HON. WILLIAM ELWELL,

Fun in a Court House.

A girl in Wilkesbarre indicted one Dobson an Englishman, for assault, in kissing her against her will. She told her story in a plain, straight-forward kind of way, to the effect that she was enjoying the evening breezes while leaning over her father's fence, and that William Dobson came along, seized her by the hands, and forcibly pulling her over the palisade, committed the assault for which she claimed redress at the hands of the law. A sister of the complainant testified that she did not see the alleged impropriety, because of the darkness, and she being in another part of the yard, but she heard a kiss, or something that sounded like a kiss, and knew that something was going on.

Dobson claimed the privilege of being his own witness, and he told the part of the story omitted by Miss Hetler and her sister. He is a jolly specimen of an Englishman. His narrative of the occurrence in which he had become involved runs as follows:

Dobson—Yer see, yer 'onors, I was walking along, singing "What will the 'arvest be?"—

Gen. McCartney (for plaintiff, disposed to have some fun while confusing the witness) —You were singing "What will the 'arvest be?" (closely imitating the intonation of the witness.)

Dobson (very composedly)—Yes, sir, "What Will the 'arvest be?"

Gen. McCartney—"What will the 'arvest be?" Dobson (unruffled)—"What will the 'arvest be?"

Gen. McCartney—Well, go on, sir.

Dobson—Yer see, yer 'onors, I was going along, singing, "What will the 'arvest be?" when I heard Mary singing "What will the 'arvest be?"

Gen. McCartney—She was signing "What will the 'arvest be?"

By this time there were decided evidences of merriment all over the court room, but Dobson remained as imperturbable as though officiating at a funeral.

Dobson—Yes, sir. She were singing, "What will the 'arvest be," but not so loud as I was, and I called out, "Hallo, Mary, are that you?" and she said she were hall halone, has her father 'ad gone to "class."

Gen. McCartney—Gone to class! What did she mean by that?

Dobson—Why any fool knows what "class" means. Her father had gone to class meeting, and left 'er hall halone. We chatted a little, and then——

Gen. McCartney—Well, you have heard her testimony. You seized her, pulled her over the fence and kissed her?

Dobson—No. That testimony is false. We talked awhile, and she sort of leaned hover the fence—like as if she wanted me to—and just then Satan got the best of me, and I kissed 'er right hon the mouth. I found out "What will the 'arvest be," and I think she was a heasy prey.

Here the gravity of the court, counsellors and spectators gave way, and seldom in a court of justice has there been such a scene of uncontrollable hilariousness. Judge Harding fairly roared himself hoarse with laughter, and all business was suspended for several minutes to allow those in the court room to recover their equanimity. Dobson was acquitted of the charge of assault, but must pay half the costs of the suit as his share of the "'arvest."

Slave Dealer's Tricks.

Mr. J. H. McCoan, in his book "Egypt As It Is," furnishes some curious information respecting the methods employed by the slave dealers to evade the law and to smuggle their wares into the cities where they bring the best prices, and adds: "Once in the capital the dealers (dejellabs) distribute their stock among the agents in various quarters of the city, and there, although the police are supposed to be on the watch to prevent it, buying and selling go on under the thinnest veil of concealment. An intending purchaser goes to one of the private but perfectly well-known entrepots in which the dealers and their slaves are lodged, and after examining the latter, selects what suits him, haggles for a time about the price, and finally closes the bargain then and there, or subsequently through a broker, who receives a small commission for the job. The dejellabs object to show their ware to Europeans, unless they are introduced by a native who is not merely a dragoman; but with that voucher, and the thin disguise of a fez and a stambouloe coat, a sight of whatever is on hand may be easily enough had. Franks are, of course, now forbidden by their own laws to buy or hold slaves, but the prohibition was not always regarded by the residents in the native quarters of the city, where, indeed, a single man cannot hire a house nor obtain lodgings unless he have a female slave. Prices range from £10 or £12 for a black boy or girl of as many years old to £70 or £100 for an Abyssinian girl from 12 to 17 or 18 and from £500 to £800, or even £1000 for a high class Circassian. Adult women slaves, who have already been in service, are cheaper, unless their skill in cookery, needlework or some other useful art balance the vice of temper or some other defect, but for which they are rarely resold. The price of males above the age of childhood varies from £20 or £30 to £90 or £100, Abyssinian youths and men ranging considerably above negroes. The neutral class of eunichs have still higher value, but these are now found in only the very wealthiest Moslem families, the rigorous prohibition which the law enforces against their production within Egyptian territory having greatly reduced the supply, and correspondingly heightened their price. * * * It may be added that the whole of the slaves imported into Egypt readily adopt the established faith, and soon become the most bigoted and fanatical section of the Moslem population."

The Corinno (Nev.) Record tells the following story: "Yesterday afternoon the writer witnessed a strange sight in the Record office. Our attention was attracted by several lusty squeaks from the inside of a pail, almost full of water, into which a half-grown mouse had fallen. The alarm had hardly died away before four or five mice appeared on the scene and began clambering to the top edge of the pail. For several moments after gaining the top of the pail and catching sight of the mouse in the water a squeaking confab was held. First one mouse and then another would cling to the rim of the bucket with his hind legs, and when almost touching the water with his nose, squeak out either consolation or advice to the immersed, but while all this was going on the swimming powers of the unfortunate mouse in the pail were rapidly giving out. At last a happy thought seemed to strike the biggest mouse in the crowd, and almost without a squeak he firmly fastened his fore foot to the edge of the pail and let his body and tail hang down. The drowning mouse saw it, and making a last desperate effort for life, swam to the spot, seized the tail of his brother mouse, and, amidst squeaks of delight from all the mice present, was hauled high and dry out of the water and over the edge of the bucket."

That Off Horse.

HOW A SOULLESS CORPORATION SETTLED WITH A GRANGER.

A horny-handed old farmer entered the office of one of the big railroad companies in Chicago and inquired for the man who settled for horses which were killed by locomotives of a bloated corporation. They referred him to the company's counsel, whom having found he thus addressed:

"Mister, I was driving home one evening last week—"

"Been drinking?" sententiously questioned the lawyer.

"I'm centre-pole of the local Tent of Rechabites," said the man.

"That doesn't answer my question," replied the man of law. "I saw a man who was boiling drunk vote the Prohibition ticklast year."

"Haven't tasted liquor since the big flood of 1846," said the old man.

"Go ahead."

"I will, 'Squire. And when I came to the crossing of your soulless monopoly—it was pretty dark—and zip! and along came your train, no bells rung, no whistles tooted, contrary to the statutes in such cases made and provided, and again the Granger decisions, and—whoop! away went my off horse shooting over the telegraph wires. When I had dug myself out'n a swamp some distance off and pacified the other critter, I found that that off horse was as dead as Perry Smith, nothing valuable abut him but his shoes, which might have brought say eight cents for old iron. Well—"

"Well, you want pay for that off hoss?" said the lawyer, with a scarcely repressed sneer.

"I kinder should, you see," replied the farmer, frankly, "and I don't care about going to law about it, though possibly I'd get a verdict; for juries out in our town is mostly made up of farmers, and they kinder help each other as a matter of principle in these cases of stock killed by railroads."

"And this ere off hoss," said the counsel mockingly, "was a Hambletonian colt out of an Abdallah mare with seventeen Messenger crosses, wasn't he? He was rising four years, as he had been for several seasons past, and had shown 2-25½ on a half mile track in the mud, hadn't he? And you had been offered $16 500 for him the day he was killed, but wouldn't take it because you were going to win all the prizes in the Grand Circuit with him, and then going to move out to Nevada and buy a silver mine and a silver mine and a Senatorship with the proceeds? O, I've heard of that off horse before."

"I guess there's a mistake somewhere, sonny," said the old farmer, with an air of surprise; my hoss was got by old man Butt's roan pacing hoss. Sired of Lemont out'n a wall-eyed, no account mare of my own that he's dead, I may say that he was 20 last grass. Trot? Why Fred. Erby's hoss that he was fined for furious drivin of was old Dexter along side of him! Sixteen thousand dollars? Bless your soul, do you think I'm a darn fool or any one else is? It is true I was made an offer for him the last time I was in town, and, for the man looked kinder simple, and you know how it is yourself with horse-trading. I asked the cuss mor'n the animal might have been worth. I asked him $65, but I'd have taken $40."

"Forty dollars!" gasped the lawyer, "forty dollars!"

"Yes;" replied the lawyer, meekly and energetically, "it kinder looks a big sum, I know, for an old hoss, but that ere off-hoss could pull a mighty good load, considering. Then I was kinder shook up and the pole of my wagon was busted, and I had to get the harness fixed, and there's my loss of time, and all that counts. Say about $50, and it's about square."

The lawyer whispered softly to himself, "Well, I'll be bull dozed!" and filled out a check for $500.

"Sir," said he covering the old man's hand, "you are the first honest man I have met in the course of legal experience of twenty-three years; the first farmer whose dead horse was worth less than $1,000, and could trot better than 2:34 without training. Here is also a free pass for yourself and your male heirs in a direct line for three generations, and if you have a young boy to spare we will teach him telegraphing and find him steady and lucrative employment."

The honest old farmer took the check and departed, smiting his horny leg with his brawny hand in triumph as he did so, with the remark: "I knew I'd fetch him on the honest track! Last hoss I had killed I swore was a trotter, and all I got was $165 and interest. Honesty is the best policy."

Is Friday an Unlucky Day?

On Friday, August 21, 1492, Christopher Columbus sailed on the great voyage of discovery. On Friday, October 12, 1492, he first discovered land. On Friday, January 4, 1493, he sailed on his return to Spain, which, if he had not reached in safety, the happy result would never have been known which led to the settlement of this vast continent. On Friday, March 15, 1493, he arrived at Palos in safety. On Friday, November 22, 1493, he arrived at Hispaniola, on his second voyage to America. On Friday, June 13, 1494, he, though unknown to himself, discovered the continent of America. On Friday, March 5, 1493, Henry VII., of England, gave to John Cabot his commission, which led to the discovery of North America. This is the first American State paper in England. On Friday, September 8, 1565, Milleridez founded St. Augustine, the oldest town in the United States, by more than forty years. On Friday November 10, 1620, the May Flower, with the Pilgrims, made the harbor of Princetown; and on the same day they signed the august compact the forerunner of our present glorious Constitution. On Friday, December 22, 1620, the Pilgrims made their final landing at Plymouth Rock. On Friday, February 22, George Washington, the father of American freedom was born. On Friday, June 16, Bunker Hill was seized and fortified. On Friday, October 7, 1677, the surrender of Saratoga was made, which has such influence in inducing France to declare for our cause. On Friday, September 22, 1780, the treason of Arnold was laid bare, which saved us from destruction. On Friday, October 19, 1781, the surrender of Yorktown, the crowning glory of the American arms, occurred. On Friday July 7, 1777, the motion in Congress was made by John Adams, seconded by Richard Henry Lee, that the United States colonies were, and of right ought to be, free and independent. Thus by numerous examples, we see that, however it may be with foreign nations, Americans need never dread to begin on Friday any undertaking, however momentous it may be.

One of our newspaper friends says that "if the gab were squeezed out of some traveling agents there would be nothing left of them but their feet and shirt collars."

VEGETINE.

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

ITS MEDICINAL QUALITIES ARE

Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully-selected barks, roots, and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Cancer, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, and Spinal complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scaldhead, and Ringworm, Vegetine has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the cause of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration, and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness, and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

THE BEST EVIDENCE

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best, Pastor of M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony as there is no doubt about the curative powers of Vegetine.

NATICK, MASS., Jan. 1, 1874.

MR. H. R. STEVENS,

Dear Sir,—We have good reason for regarding your Vegetine a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age. For the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him Vegetine, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of Vegetine, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. BEST,
MRS. L. C. P. BEST.

Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

Or Sugar-Coated, Concentrated, Root and Herbal Juice, Anti-Bilious Granules. THE "LITTLE GIANT" CYPARTIC, or Multum in Parvo Physic.

The novelty of modern Medical Chemical, and Pharmaceutical science. No use of any longer taking the large, repulsive, and nauseous pills, composed of clumsy, crude, and bulky ingredients, when we can, by a careful application of chemical science, extract all the cathartic and other medicinal properties from the most valuable roots and herbs, and concentrate them into a minute Granule, scarcely larger than a mustard seed, that can be readily swallowed by those of the most sensitive stomachs and tastiest tastes. Each little Purgative Pellet represents, in a most concentrated form, as much cathartic power as is embodied in any of the large pills found for sale in drug-shops. From their wonderful cathartic power, in comparison to their size, people who have not tried them are apt to suppose that they are harsh or drastic in effect: but such is not at all the case, the different active medicinal principles of which they are composed being so harmonized and modified, one by the others, as to produce a most searching and thorough, yet gentle and kindly operating, cathartic.

$500 Reward is hereby offered by the proprietor of these Pellets, to any chemist who, upon analysis, will find in them any calomel or other forms of mercury, mineral poison, or injurious drug.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad taste in the mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Inflamed feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, High-colored Urine, Unsociability and Gloomy Forebodings, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of my Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, I wish to say that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being therein preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with those pills which are put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. Recollect that for all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction to all who use them.

They are sold by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

WOMAN.

By an immense practice, extending through a period of years, having within that time treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meets the indications presented by that class of diseases with positive certainty and exactness.

To designate this natural specific compound, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon my own personal observation. As a close observer, I have, while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, weighed it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly and in harmony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician. Nay, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on return of the bottle, with the certificate, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly miraculous cures in thousands of cases, I feel warranted and perfectly safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its merits.

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine of like curriculum. Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing Down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Indammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, Female Weakness, and very many other chronic diseases incident to woman not mentioned here. In all affections of this nature, my Favorite Prescription works cures—the marvel of the world. This medicine I do not extol as a cure-all, but it admirably fulfills the singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.00. It treats mainly of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice as to regard to the management of those affections.
